

THE COMPLETE DIRECTORY OF Large Print Books & Serials

“... fills an important niche ... will prove indispensable to all libraries having visually handicapped patrons.”

- ACADEMIC LIBRARY BOOK REVIEW

If you are building or managing a large-print book or serial collection, then Bowker's The Complete Directory of Large Print Books and Serials is the single most important resource you could own. Listing all active large print materials identified in the Books In Print® and Ulrich's Periodicals Directory™ databases, this bibliographic tool contains information on over 22,250 titles, including 1,830 new titles this year.

To encourage patron or customer usage, this edition has been printed in 12-point type and contains subject headings commonly used by publishers, bookstores, and the Library of Congress. Titles from the American Printing House and National Association for Visually Handicapped (NAVH) are also listed.

The Complete Directory of Large Print Books and Serials boasts nine easy-to-use indexes including title, author, general reading subject, textbook subject, children's subject, serials subject and serials title. For easy acquisition, full-contact information on publishers, wholesalers, and distributors is provided in a separate index.

Order today and be on your way to accommodating all the needs of your customers or patrons.

For even better value, create a standing order and save 10% on this edition and 5% on all future editions, which will be sent to you automatically. A standing order may be cancelled at any time.
