

SpanishBooksInPrint.com™

With over half a million titles from more than 24 countries and 5,000 publishers, SpanishBooksInPrint.com is the only database of its kind with Spanish-language title bibliographic information on in-print, out-of-print and forthcoming audio and video titles.

SpanishBooksInPrint.com offers recommended titles, 3,000 full-text reviews, bestseller lists, and links to useful Spanish-language resources. Inventory and availability information from U.S. and non-U.S. based suppliers is also provided.

Search with over 30 search criteria, including English-language subjects for non-Spanish speaking searchers. Create, save and e-mail lists of search results and title details directly from the site. The advanced functionality and communication tools at SpanishBooksInPrint.com will aid in workflow and you will be able to offer Spanish-language titles with confidence.

Don't limit your selection to translations of popular English-language titles. Find the best selling and most recommended current and classic titles by the best Spanish-language authors with this professional resource.

In Spring 2004, SpanishBooksInPrint.com debuted a new, simplified interface with Streamlined Workflow features. Designed to aid in workflow and time management, the enhancements will include new feature tabs at the top and bottom of each search results and full description page, as well as new pop-up windows that will display even more detailed information without taking users away from the page being viewed.
